

Thank You!

I would like to express my gratitude, and thank you for listening to my album "11:11 - City of Love".

I hope with your help, we can cast the message of love to be heard by many. It is my belief that healing power of love can lead us to a better world with peace at it's core.

As the great poet Rumi said;
*"Through love thorns become roses,
through love vinegar becomes sweet wine"*

So, this album is my commitment to inspire my listeners with this powerful emotion.

I believe that the world will be a better place, when love unites us, and peace would be it's manifestation.

About Shakila

Shakila is a Persian/American vocalist.
Her dream of being a singer started when she was a young girl.

At age 19 she decided to pursue her dream, which lead to over 15
Album releases, and established a well known name for herself.
Becoming an international artist has always been her ultimate vision.
In 2013 she decided to record an album for all her English speaking fans worldwide.